Prof. C.K. Mukhopadhaya, (Member BPGS) from the Dept. of Economics, North Bengal University, could not attend the meeting due to some prior engagement. Prof. M.P. Bezbaruah, Guwahati University was present in the meeting as an external expert.

At the very onset the Chairman welcomed all the members and submitted a draft syllabus which was prepared earlier for discussion. The syllabus consists of 8 (eight) papers and each paper has 10 (ten) units. The principle of question setting in the final exam will be to cover all the units with equal emphasis. So from each of the 10 (ten) units two questions will be set, out of which the candidate will have to answer questions. After a thorough discussion many suggestions were made by the external expert and accordingly the changes were incorporated in the syllabus

The meeting ended with a vote of thanks by the Chairman.
